Darling Honey Love:-

Just received your darling Tuesday's letter and we are sorry that you missed one of your daily letters. I know that I mailed it on time, so, therefore, think that it was merely a delay in the mail.

Honey love, I sure am glad that you kind of enjoyed yourself at the circus. I sure do hope I can see your precious self in the movies. Darling mine, I cant express how I yearn for a glimpse of you. Hog-gone, lovie, I sure do love you and feel so happy to think that soon, please God, I will have you with me. Joe Solomon is out to-day looking for a place, but it seems that after all, I will not be able to get a place with a bath. Uncle Morris told me to take what I can until the fall, and I think, from the way he talks, he is going to give me a part of his flat upon which to build. Of course, honey love I will try and get the best I can for rent is no object, if its within reason. I sure do hope everything turns out well. I am glad you told me about the iron. I'll get it, and anything else you want, so just let me know, hear?

Toots, did mommsan go to the hospital Saturday? I sure do hope so, and I am certain it the best thing for her. And how is Henry E.? Hope he is over the blues. The poor kid sure is delicate.

Honey love, I pulled off something big to-day. Pinstein's brother bought a building and is paying $25000.00. I am to close the deal. I expect I'll make about $500.00 or so out of it. Hope I do. Easy money, that. I've been getting little accounts here and there. But do hope that business continue so that we can have easy sailing during the summer months. My stomach is a little better than it was. Sure do hope I can get it back in shape. The weather is simply wonderful! Nice clean days and believe me, days in which to make love, so honey dearest, hurry on down, as I'm just craving to make love to my little sweetheart. What do you say, loviedear?

How are you feeling, honey love? How are you in general health? Don't forget, sweetheart, to take good care of yourself, hear?

Must close now, darling, with all my love, hugs and kisses to you, darling wife mine,

Ever lovingly

Jon
